U. S. Intervention In English-Boer War.

Since the beginning of the Transvaal war the President and the State Department have been deluged with appeals, letters, and petitions from a large number of well-meaning citizens urging the administration to intervene between England and the two Republics. In the first place it may be presumed that 90 per cent of these know nothing as to the consequences of an intervention. They fail to realize that to intervene in the broad sense of the word is to become active belligerents against England and to actually commence hostilities against her. No intervention short of an actual resort to arms on our part would accomplish anything whatever. England dare not halt in her course because of a mere threat on the part of any power. To do so would be an acknowledgment of such weakness as to imperil her position as one of the important powers. Then the only remaining thing that the interventionists could insist upon, on the part of the President and Congress, would be to open warfare with a nation 3000 to 5000 miles away from our shores. Such a warfare to be at all successful must cost more blood and treasure than all the wars in which we have ever engaged.

And it is worthy of note that after months of effort the representatives of the Republics have not been able to enlist a single European power in their behalf.

Germany, Austria, Italy, France, and Spain have all spoken in relation to the matter, and have all refused to in any manner take any part in the contest. If these, some of them the natural enemies of England, refuse to aid the Republics surely no one having the best interest of this nation at heart would consider it proper for our nation to meddle in an affair not in any sense our own and from which we have nothing to gain.

President McKinley has made it known to the representatives of England, that if England should at any time desire it, the administration will act as a peace-maker on the part of both belligerents. This course on the part of the President is to be commended as humane, and at the same time duly cautious in not attempting to mar the cordial relations existing between the two nations.

HYMENEAN.

A very pretty home wedding was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Tenniswood, in Speaker township, Sanilac county, on Wednesday, March 21, 1900, when their daughter Mae was united in marriage to Thomas Wark of the same place.

Promptly at 5 p. m. the wedding march was played by Mrs. E. Tenniswood, and the bridal party marched in the following order: Everett Tenniswood and Miss Maggie Ross, Leslie Kerr and Miss Ella Tenniswood, then came the bride and groom, who stood under a beautiful arch of ferns and white lilies.

The bride was beautifully dressed in a light gray silk, carrying white and pink carnations. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Ellertorpe, after which the bride and groom and some ninety guests repaired to the dining room, where a bounteous and elegant supper was served.

The presents received by the happy couple were numerous and beautiful as well as useful. The afternoon and evening was passed very pleasantly by the guests, and they repaired home with a consciousness of the occasion which memory will long retain. Mr. and Mrs. Wark's many friends unite in wishing them all joy and success in sailing the great voyage of life together.

A very quiet marriage occurred in this village on Wednesday evening, March 21, 1900. The contracting parties being Robert J. Carson and Mrs. Elizabeth Newell, both of Brockway township. The ceremony was performed by Elder D. McCall at the parsonage. The bans of this marriage were not bruited abroad, and few suspected anything of that kind to occur. The bride and groom have hosts of friends in this region, where they have long resided, and these all join in wishing them a happy and prosperous married life. The Expositor extends its greetings to the newly united couple.

OBITUARY.

For long weary days since the news was first spread over the community announcing Mrs. D. A. McKeith's dangerous illness, a feeling of anxiety has possessed the whole people. On last Wednesday, when it was announced that she could not live, many were the anxious enquiries of one from another, and a shadow fell upon the feelings and faces of all. The long and happy acquaintance of the people with Mrs. McKeith, and the sad circumstances connected with her sickness, elicited the sympathy of all. All these feelings became a gloom when the sad announcement of her death was made on Thursday morning.

Mrs. Dora McKeith was born in Manchester, New Hampshire, June 8, 1872, and died in Yale, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sawyer, on Wednesday, March 21, 1900, aged 27 years, 9 months and 13 days. She was married to Duncan McKeith on April 12, 1898. Her, to us who remain, untimely death, leaves this husband and an infant daughter, little Arline, without the best earthly factor in all homes, a wife and mother. She being the only child, her decease leaves the father and mother, childless in old age. The fact that Arline is spared and bids fair to grow up and in time speak the endearing words of grandpa and grandma, is the only shade of light in this dark picture. This sad blow comes with double force on Mr. Sawyer, as of late he has been quite poorly, and the weight of this great sorrow is very depressing.

The funeral services will take place to-morrow, Saturday, at 1:30 p. m. under the auspices of the Eastern Star and will be held at the home so dear to the deceased. Rev. J. H. Rowe will officiate. The interment will be in Elmwood cemetery. Words of sympathy come from all, and the bereaved friends have the assurance that their sorrow is felt, though less intensely, by many others as well as themselves.

Died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilt in Greenwood, March 16, 1900, Frank Wilt, aged twelve years. His sickness was brief, lasting but two days. The funeral occurred Monday, in the Brockway Catholic church, Rev. Father Cullinane officiating, and the interment was made in the Kenockee cemetery.

The following tribute is paid the memory of little Frank by his schoolmates: We the friends and comrades of Frank Wilt, deeply feeling the loss of our beloved schoolmate, wish to extend to the bereaved family our sympathy in the loss of one who was loved by all. Another place is vacant in the home, the school and society. We trust that clothed in robes of white he is singing with the throng of loved ones gone before, in those happy mansions where we may some day one and all meet him. May his death enable us to realize how uncertain life is, and may we his companions prepare to join the one who has completed his toilsome journey before us. All of which was adopted by the teacher and pupils in district No. 6, Greenwood.

CARD OF THANKS.—We desire to thank the many friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted and sympathized with us during the sickness and death of our beloved son, Frank.
Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Wilt.

Mrs. Alice Kearney was born in Fremont township, Sanilac county, Mich., April 5, 1875, and died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grant, of the same place, Wednesday, March 21, 1900, lacking 15 days of being 25 years old.

Deceased had suffered for a long time with an incurable disease. She came from Pinconning to her parents' home only a few days before her death and therefore had the satisfaction of looking upon familiar scenes and loved faces, ere bidding them a final farewell.

Mrs. Kearney leaves a husband and two children on this side of that mysterious line which marks the end of this and the beginning of another life. The funeral service will be held in the M. P. church, Yale, on Sunday, March 23 and the burial will take place in Elmwood cemetery.

Information is received at this office of the death of Mrs. Henry Gelschlager on Monday, March 19, 1900. The deceased resided in the south-west part of Brockway township. She had reached the advanced age of 76 years, and was therefore living on borrowed time. The burial took place in Brockway cemetery on Wednesday. A husband and one child are the immediate remaining relatives.

Just as we go to press the report comes to us that Mrs. C. B. Hungerford died at 2 p. m. yesterday.
